VALUE PROPOSITION

Deep waterfront with a dock and boat lift on Redington Beach is an extremely rare find. Gulf access properties with private docks consistently trade at $1.8M+ in this market. This is a buy-and-hold play with luxury rental upside generating $15K–$20K/month during peak season.

MARKET INSIGHT

Waterfront homes with dock and Gulf access in Redington Beach average $700–$750/SF. Deep water lots are increasingly scarce as demand for boat-accessible properties continues to outpace supply along the Pinellas beach corridor.

EXIT STRATEGY

SCENARIO	PROJECTED VALUE
Hold Value (Stabilized)	$1,800,000
Annual Luxury Rental Income	$150,000
Less: Operating Expenses (30%)	($45,000)
Net Operating Income	$105,000

WHY THIS DEAL

- 1

Deep Waterfront

Deep water access with dock and lift — accommodates large vessels for Gulf fishing and cruising.
- 2

Gulf Access

Direct navigable access to the Gulf of Mexico — no bridge restrictions or shallow channels.
- 3

Luxury Rental

Waterfront homes with docks command $15K–$20K/month peak season rental rates.
- 4

Scarce Asset

Waterfront lots with docks in Redington Beach are rarely available — limited supply drives appreciation.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Deep waterfront property with private dock and boat lift — direct Gulf of Mexico access
- 9,000 SF R-1 lot in Redington Beach — one of the most desirable addresses on the Gulf Coast
- Hold strategy with luxury short-term rental income potential of $150K+ annually
- Comparable waterfront homes trading at $1.65M–$1.93M in the immediate market
- Light updates required — property is functional and rentable from day one
- $1.35M acquisition with $1.8M stabilized value represents significant built-in equity

TIMELINE

Light renovation of 2–3 months to optimize for luxury rental market. Property can begin generating income immediately if desired. Long-term hold with 6.8% cap rate on stabilized NOI.
